

First – Congratulations, you're getting married!

Now let's talk about your wedding cake! These masterpieces are often conversation fillers and are well remembered in the years following the big day. All wedding cakes are designed by myself alongside input from you using your ideas; I believe this enables me to create the perfect cake for you.

I price my cakes on the number of portions provided so this handy guide should give you an idea of the tier sizes you may require.

A handy piece of advice is to cater for 75-80% of your guest list because not everyone will eat cake. Of course you can always keep the top tier to take away and eat yourselves!

Payment Details

On booking your date a non refundable deposit of £50 is required. For orders over £450 a second non refundable deposit of £50 will required 6 months later. Balances will need to be paid by 4 weeks before the wedding date.

Booking Process

If you like what you see and I have availability for your date you can pay the deposit. If you do this I can then arrange a date approximately 6-9 months before the wedding date where you can come and eat cake! You can try some samples, decide your flavours and I can start work on the design process.

Alternatively we can arrange a meeting to try some samples and talk cake ideas. There is a £20 charge for this and £20 will be deducted from your overall quote if you decide to book with me. If you do book with me the payment process will be as above.

Thank you for contacting me and I look forward to talking cake with you in the future!
